Introduction

Multi International Foods is a leading global exporter and e-commerce retailer of premium rice, grains, and dry fruits, directly connecting India's agricultural heritage with worldwide markets. We meticulously source non-GMO products from trusted farming partners, adhering to stringent international standards including FDA compliance for US clients. Our vertically integrated supply chain ensures farm-to-table freshness and reliability for bulk B2B buyers (distributors, wholesalers, and retailers) and retail consumers. Through platforms like Amazon.com (US), Flipkart, Blinkit, and Meesho, we deliver aromatic Basmati rice, nutrient-rich grains, and handpicked dry fruits with guaranteed quality, affordability, and timely global logistics. We prioritize traceable sourcing, sustainable partnerships, and customer satisfaction at every tier of operation.

What Original 1800 Stands For! :-

We believe in keeping things real and simple. Original 1800 means original, authentic products – just as nature intended. No shortcuts, no compromises.

Why We Started! :-

We saw the need for honest, high-quality food products that people can trust. Our goal is to make it easy for everyone to enjoy natural, fresh, and healthy ingredients every day.
